To ensure that your congress be the most striking in the annals of your organization, and the result an entire success, its work must necessarily be associated with relaxation.

That is why you must choose a pleasant site within easy reach whether by ship, plane, train or car; a place which offers you exclusive diversions after your working sessions.

In order that you too may fully enjoy your hours, of liberty, you must find a place where the organisation of your congress is "tailored" for you.

Upon your arrival, sufficient only it must be that you attend the sessions, everything previously prepared.

This ideal spot, which possesses everything associating work with pleasure, is Ostend. That which Ostend has to offer you, is the possession of no other. Perusal of the following pages will give you a preview of Ostend as a town and as a seaside resort.
